

This licence is made under English Law between The SFIA Foundation, The Scalpel, 18th Floor, 52 Lime Street, London EC3M 7AF ("the Foundation") and ("the Licensee").

LICENCE

This is a limited, non-transferable licence for the use of Skills Framework for the Information Age. The SFIA Foundation's General Terms and Conditions form part of this agreement.

This licence permits limited commercial exploitation of the content and brand of The Skills Framework for the Information Age ("SFIA") by the Licensee: the licensee is entitled to publish information that explains the relationship between SFIA information and the qualifications or other services issued by the licensee. Such information is referred to here as "mapping".

The licensee shall take reasonable steps to understand SFIA.

The licensee shall make efforts to ensure that the mapping is based on a proper understanding of SFIA and its uses. The mapping shall be documented and the results submitted to The SFIA Foundation. The Foundation's approval must be received before publication of the mappings.

The information describing the mapping may only be used as long as this licence is in force. The licensee agrees to pay the annual licence fee to the SFIA Foundation each year for as long as this licence is in force. The fee is shown in The SFIA Foundation's General Terms and Conditions, and may be subject to change from time to time.
