

This licence is made under English Law between The SFIA Foundation, The Scalpel, 18th Floor, 52 Lime Street, London EC3M 7AF ("the Foundation") and ("the Licensee").

LICENCE

The SFIA Trademark is registered in over 35 countries. Any use of SFIA requires a licence from The SFIA Foundation.

This is a limited, non-transferable licence for the use of The Skills Framework for the Information Age (SFIA) and its associated documentation and support assets. The SFIA Foundation's General Terms and Conditions form part of this agreement. Licensees should familiarise themselves with those terms and conditions.

By selecting this licence from The SFIA Foundation's web site the licensee agrees to be bound by, and will ensure all its employees and agents will comply with, the terms of this limited user licence, including the terms and conditions set out in The SFIA Foundation's General Terms and Conditions.

PERMITTED USES

The following table indicates which uses are permitted by the terms of this licence and which are prohibited. Limitations on the use of SFIA also apply to significant extracts of SFIA.

Licence feature: Yes=Permitted, No=Not Permitted
In-house workforce and capability development and staff management by the licensee	Yes
Use of SFIA within the licensee's own job descriptions and recruitment activities, including referencing SFIA skills and levels and linking to the official SFIA website rather than reproducing substantial SFIA content	Yes
Personal use, by licensee's staff, for information or for personal development	Yes
Creating an internal framework based on or adapted from SFIA for use internally only within the licensee	Yes
Using SFIA to deliver paid consulting, advisory, or services to external clients	No <sup>1</sup>
Embedding SFIA content into any product, tool or service that is sold or provided to external parties	No <sup>1</sup>
Providing SFIA Training (e.g. to clients) outside of the licensee	No <sup>1</sup>
Publishing mappings to SFIA of training or qualifications issued by the licensee	No <sup>1</sup>
Use of SFIA in a rate card for pricing human resources for hire or contract or use in recruitment services	No <sup>1</sup>
Sharing or publishing full skills, large extracts or substantial parts of SFIA outside the licensee (e.g. on websites, public domains or to external partners). Small quotations for reference are acceptable with attribution.	No <sup>2</sup>
Distribution to, or sharing across, related organisations, such as other Government Departments. (This can be enabled by other appropriate licensing)	No <sup>3</sup>
Translating SFIA into another language or dialect	No <sup>4</sup>
Use of a defined form of the SFIA trademark provided by The SFIA Foundation	No <sup>4</sup>
Licensee's logo listed on SFIA web site to show commitment to people development (optional)	Yes <sup>4</sup>

1 A separate SFIA Partner Licence would be required for this: Contact the SFIA Foundation.

2 This also prohibits the publication of SFIA in a context such as a web site that allows SFIA to be browsed by parties not covered by the licence

3 A separate SFIA Licence, such as a Public Sector SFIA Licence would be required for this distribution: Contact the SFIA Foundation.

4 Contact the SFIA Foundation if required.

Note: Where the licensee engages an external organisation or individual to provide services involving the use of SFIA, including rate cards, the licensee should take reasonable steps to ensure that the provider holds an appropriate licensed for commercial use of SFIA.
